Request and response

5. On 6 April 2023, the complainant wrote to the Council and requested information in the following terms:

"Freedom of Information Act 2000, to cover the period October 2020 to April 2023 inclusive.

It is for the provision in electronic form of any and all communications between any representative employee or member of Newcastle City Council or anyone acting on behalf of Newcastle City Council, and the group calling itself Space for Jesmond or any known member or associate thereof in respect of the proposal, consultation and planning process of the recently imposed 'Jesmond East Trials' LTN

Also, attendance records agendas and full minutes of all meetings between any representative employee or member of Newcastle City Council or anyone acting on behalf of Newcastle City Council, and the group calling itself Space for Jesmond or any known member or associate thereof in respect of the proposal, consultation and planning process of the recently imposed 'Jesmond East Trials' LTN"

6. The Council acknowledged the request on 6 April 2023. To date, a substantive response has not been issued.

Reasons for decision

---

7. Section 1(1) of FOIA states that:

"Any person making a request for information to a public authority is entitled –

(a) to be informed in writing by the public authority whether it holds information of the description specified in the request, and

(b) if that is the case, to have that information communicated to him."

8. Section 10(1) of FOIA states that a public authority must respond to a request promptly and "not later than the twentieth working day following the date of receipt".

9. On 22 June 2023 the Commissioner wrote to the Council, reminding it of its responsibilities and asking it to provide a substantive response to the complainant's request within 10 working days.
10. Despite this intervention the Council has failed to respond to the complainant.
11. From the evidence provided to the Commissioner in this case, it is clear that the Council did not deal with the request for information in accordance with FOIA. The Commissioner finds that the Council has breached section 10(1) by failing to respond to the request within 20 working days and it is now required to respond to the request in accordance with FOIA.
